HERRIN SHOWS NO MARK OF GRIEF AT FUNERAL SERVICE FOR UNIDENTIFIED STRIKE BREAKERS

BODIES OF VICTIMS BROUGHT HERE

Eighteen bodies of strikebreakers were lying in this temporary morgue in Herrin, Ill., when this photo was taken. Crowds visited the building throughout the day. The picture shows ruins of the strikebreakers' homes. They lived in cars that had been provided for them at the mines. Burning cars of coal that caught fire from the incendiary blaze, are shown at the left.

Herrin, Ill., June 26.—While 150 union miners, citizens and visitors from surrounding mining communities, looked on, 10 unidentified dead, victims of Williamson County's war slaughter, were laid to rest Sunday.

Four Protestant ministers of Herrin conducted the services. They prayed—not for forgiveness for those responsible for the rioting, nor for the souls of the victims. No direct mention of the dead or the warfare of Wednesday and Thursday was made.

The bodies were buried, and the crowd turned slowly and returned to Herrin. Herrin showed no genuine sorrow over the victims. Neither did Herrin show resentment. Herrin appears to feel she has done her duty. The men who tried to steal the strikers' jobs have been given decent burials, and she is ready to forget the whole affair.

Little interest was shown in the formal inquest called by Coroner Will McCowan.

HERRIN CONSIDERS MASSACRE INCIDENT A THING OF THE PAST

Herrin, Ill. June 26.—Bloody Williamson County today approved the report of the Coroner's jury which held officials of the Southern Illinois Coal Company responsible for the twenty-one deaths in the battle between union and non-union miners. With eighteen victims of the affray buried in the cemetery here Herrin considered the incident closed.

COAL STRIKE IS STILL THE BIG TOPIC IN GOVERNMENT CIRCLE

Washington, June 26.—Two movements looking towards the ending of the nation-wide coal strike, now in its fourteenth week, was under way here today. Secretary of Labor Davis is making another effort to bring about a conference between the coal miners and the operators by means of which it is hoped the walkout can be ended. President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers is here for a conference on the subject. In the Senate a new and drastic plan for Federal and State intervention to halt the strike was under consideration. This was said to involve a recommendation that some legal proceedings be taken against the striking miners.

Washington, June 26.—The Federal Government will take a new and unexpected move in the coal strike if the final effort of the Government now in progress to bring about a peace conference between the miners and operators fails, it was learned today at the Labor Department. Secretary of Labor Davis announced that he and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers would call on the President at noon to discuss the situation. President Lewis was asked to come here for the conference. It was announced just before Lewis met with Secretary Davis for a preliminary conference it was announced that the operators were standing pat on their demand that wage agreements should be negotiated in a state and sectional basis and not on a basis of dealing with the miners as a whole as demanded by the miners. A letter to this effect was received by the Department of Labor this morning.

FOURTH OF JULY SPORTS PROGRAM FULL OF INTEREST

Something New Being Added Every Day And A Wonderful Program Is In The Making.

MANY NOVELTIES

The American Legion's big Fourth of July celebration promises to make history for Clearfield as the different committees in charge continue to add new features to the already large and varied program under process of development for this great occasion. Nothing is being left undone to make this the biggest Fourth of July demonstration to be given in Central Pennsylvania and indications point to the largest crowd ever assembled in the town.

There is too much on the list of events for the day to give them all space in one article and we propose to give "extracts" from the program each day from now until the big day arrives. Here is one feature.

1. Tract and Field Meet at Driving Park.

1.—Tract and Field Meet at Driving Park.

As part of the program for the Fourth of July, the American Legion will hold a Tract and Field Meet at the Driving Park, in which all the athletes of the vicinity are eligible to take part.

The meet will start promptly at one o'clock, with events as follows.

- 1.—50 yard dash.
- 2.—100 yard dash.
- 3.—220 yard dash.
- 4.—Running high jump.
- 5.—Running broad jump.

The prizes that will be awarded are as follows:

All first place winners, 20 year gold medal.

All second place winners, a sterling silver medal.

All third place winners, a solid bronze medal.

All of these medals are of the official American Legion type. As an added incentive a gold watch will be given to the winner of the highest number of points in the meet.

Every athlete in this vicinity should be entered. Applications will be forwarded on request made to the Athletic Committee of John Lewis Shade Post No. 6, care L. G. Hallen, Clearfield, Pa.

In order to insure fair treatment to all competitors the meet will be held (Continued on Page 7.)

FOUR PLAYGROUNDS WILL OPEN HERE NEXT FRIDAY

Trained Instructors Are Engaged to Look After Our Youth And Teach Them How To Play.

ASSIST THE ELKS

Clearfield Community Service has so far completed its plans for the summer playgrounds as to be able to announce their opening for Friday, June 30th. The organization will operate with the Elks to the maintenance of the children at the Driving Park of Thursday, June 29th, and then begin activities on the playgrounds the next day.

Miss Margaret Leighton of Dalton, Pa., has been engaged as Director of Community Service for the coming year. Miss Leighton is a graduate of Skidmore College, and of Columbia University in courses in physical education and playground administration. She has had a number of years experience in the recreation field, having charge of physical education in the rural schools of a New York county and also in a mountain section of North Carolina. She has had charge of Y. W. C. A. activities in Louisville, Ky., and Bar Harbor, Me., and is experienced in amateur dramatics and pageantry. The committee in charge of the work believes Clearfield is fortunate in obtaining a director with the training and experience of Miss Leighton.

There will be a supervisor in charge of each playground. These supervisors are Clearfield girls, all of whom have had experience in this kind of work. Miss Edna Floyd will have charge of the playground on the West Side in the Driving Park. Miss Floyd is a great favorite among the children of that ward, where she teaches school, and of their parents. She assisted in the conduct of a playground at Hagerstown, Md., last summer. Miss Grace Stewart will have charge of the playground in the East End. Miss Stewart has just returned home from a successful year's teaching at Grand Rapids, Mich. The playground in the East End is in the grove at Murray's Woods at the end of 11th street. The central playground to be situated on the Witmer Park in back of the high school, will be in charge of Miss Sylvia Breth, who has spent the last year at Lock Haven Normal School, and the playground on the school grounds at Reedsville will be (Continued on Page 7.)

TELLS PECULIAR STORIES

Mineola, N. Y., June 26.—William Creasy broke down today and admitted that he had not been intimate with Edith Lavey, whose murder he has been charged with. "I became confused and told that story," Creasy said. "Edith was a good girl. I know she was, for I never would have married her otherwise."

Mine War Victim

C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the Southern Illinois Coal Company's mine near Herrin, Ill., was the first of those beaten and shot to death in the riot that followed importation of strikebreakers.

WIFE OF GOV. SMALL DIES AFTER HEARING OF HIS ACQUITTAL

Kankakee, Ill., June 26.—Mrs. Len Small, wife of the Illinois Governor, died today of apoplexy following her husband's acquittal. Mrs. Small was stricken with apoplexy when a blood vessel burst in her brain Saturday night. No hope was held out for her recovery after the stroke. Physicians said that the great strain of the trial coupled with the joy of her husband's acquittal caused her death. She was stricken just after a rousing homecoming celebration by thousands of the Governor's friends who were gathered on the lawn of the Governor's mansion.

HUGHES CALLS ON MEXICO TO RETURN AMERICAN TO U. S.

Washington, D. C., June 26.—Secretary of State Hughes has wired George T. Sumnerlin, American Charge d'Affairs at Mexico City, to take immediate steps to procure the release of A. B. Bielaski former chief of the Department of Justice Investigation Service, held for ransom by Mexican bandits.

Tarrytown, N. Y., June 26.—Because his cheery smiles welcomed William Rockefeller at his stand every morning for nearly forty years, Thomas De Lucca, bootblack, was among the few persons invited to attend the funeral of the dead magnate here this afternoon. "Charlie", as Mr. Rockefeller always called him, won a warm place in the financier's regard and for this reason had the privilege of joining the few who, at Rockefeller's special request, were summoned to the funeral services. Rev. Thomas W. Baldwin officiated at the services.

YOUTHFUL WIFE OF THEATRE MAGNATE SHOTS HUSBAND

Freeport, N. Y., June 25.—Oscar A. Hirsh, wealthy former theatrical producer of New York, is in a critical condition at the Nassau Hospital and his young wife, Hazel, is under arrest, charged with having shot him following a quarrel at the close of a lawn party given by Miss Rene Davies, actress, early this morning.

The shooting occurred in front of the home of Miss Davies, who is a sister of Marion Davies, moving picture star. Rene Davies is the former wife of George Lederer, theatre manager.

The cause of the quarrel which led to the shooting is not known. Hirsh, who was shot through the cheek, the bullet running downward and apparently lodging near his heart, said the shooting had followed threats of violence by Mrs. Hirsh, according to Bernard J. Douras, a New York City magistrate and father of the Misses Davies.

Magistrate Douras, who ran to Hirsh's side immediately after the shooting, told Assistant District Attorney Edwards the wounded man had gasped:

"She did it. She shot me. She said she would get me, and now she did it."

Mrs. Hirsh, running from the scene of the shooting, was heard to say, according to witnesses, "Oh, I shot my daddy." Later, at the police station Miss Rene Davies told the authorities that the accused woman declared that her husband had kept her a prisoner in their home here for four days "with little food and drink, and when he picked on me I didn't know what I did."

SLAYS SELF AFTER QUARREL WITH BRIDE OF SIX MONTHS

Scranton, Pa., June 26.—Following a quarrel with his bride of six months, Albert Johnson, of Peckville, went to his room and shot himself through the head. He was dead when other occupants of the building reached him.

Mrs. H. G. Wisner, of 8th street is able to be up again after being confined to her bed with diphtheria.

STRIKE OF RAIL WORKERS CERTAIN ON BALLOT BASIS

Chicago, Ill., June 26.—The strike of 1,200,000 union railroad employees on July 1st appeared certain today as the policy committee of the shop crafts employees met here to canvass the strike vote. The strike call will be sent out Thursday ordering the men to walk out Saturday, according to the best available information. The vote of the eleven railroad unions filed with the American Federation of Labor has been overwhelmingly in favor of the walkout in preference to acceptance of wage cuts and working under revisions ordered by the United States labor wage board.

Chicago, Ill., June 26.—Moves by the board to avert one of the causes for a strike by ordering railroads to cease letting out work under contract will not prevent a walk-out, Union leaders said today. They doubted the roads would obey the order, pointing to past opposition by the carriers to similar orders. The roads might be able to keep up some sort of service for a few days, the union leaders said, but they claim they will be unable to operate longer than a week because of repairs which will be needed on engines and other rolling stock by the end of that time. The workers have spoken and we will comply with their judgment, it was said by union officials. We have been forced into this position by the railroads and we are ready for the contest.

Freeport, N. Y., June 26.—Mrs. Hazel Hirsch, blonde beauty of the Hollywood of the East, appeared in court today to face charges of trying to kill her millionaire husband, Oscar Hirsch. She appeared before Judge Albin heavily veiled. She held a handkerchief over her disfigured right eye. The Assistant District Attorney accused Mrs. Hirsch of shooting her husband in the jaw yesterday morning after a lawn party given by Miss Rene Davies, a movie actress.

FRANKLIN, CROWDED OFF ROAD, ROLLS OVER INTO RIVER

This morning as James Waterworth and three other young men were coming down the river from the country club grounds where they had been playing golf, in an effort to pass another car on the narrow detour to Hyde City their Franklin sedan slid down over the bank and tumbled into the river. The accident occurred at the foot of Coal Hill.

The boys all got bumped up a little and suffered an involuntary bath but luckily escaped serious injury. The car was pretty well banged up.

MURDER VERDICT IS RETURNED AGAINST SLAYERS OF WILSON

London, England, June 26.—A verdict of willful murder was returned today by the coroner's court against James O'Brien and James O'Connell, assassins of Field Marshall Sir Henry Wilson.

THE CORE OF THE MINE WAR

Dispute over operation of this steam shovel at the strip mine at Herrin, Ill., with members of the Shovelmen's Union working with non-union miners, was the immediate cause of the fight that ended in scores being killed. In the foreground are four men who figure largely in the news of the fight. Left to right, Col. Samuel N. Hunter, State Senator William J. Sneed, a sub-district official of the miners union, Melville Tharnton, sheriff of Williamson county, and J. A. Schafer, deputy sheriff.

ALL TOGETHER FOR A SAFE AND SANE FOURTH OF JULY

Harrisburg, Pa., June 26.—A vigorous movement to insure a "safe Fourth" in Pennsylvania is being pushed throughout the state by C. M. Wilhelm, chief of the Bureau of Fire Protection of the State police, who has written letters to all mayors, burgesses and editors in Pennsylvania asking their cooperation.

"Noise is not patriotism," said Wilhelm, "let's go back to the old days when the Fourth was celebrated in a sane way by the unfurling of the Stars and Stripes, the ringing of church bells and songs and speeches."

"The movement for a safe and sane Fourth of July is one of conservation, conservation of life and property and freedom from distracting noises produced by the firing of guns, pistols and firecrackers and other equally as dangerous catch-penny affairs that are purchased by young children."

John O. Sheatz, Ex-State Treasurer, Dies At The Shore

John O. Sheatz, former State Treasurer, who served three terms in the State House of Representatives and one term as State Senator, died suddenly of heart disease shortly before noon yesterday at the Hotel Raleigh, Atlantic City. He was sixty-seven years old.

With Mrs. Sheatz, he had gone to Atlantic City last Thursday expecting to pass a month at the resort. Mr. Sheatz seemed to be in excellent health and high spirits until yesterday morning. About 11 o'clock while preparing for a bath, he complained of a slight dizziness and his wife with the aid of a bellboy got him into bed. Dr. J. C. Marshall, 1517 Pacific Avenue was summoned immediately, but Mr. Sheatz died before the physician arrived at the hotel. Heart disease was given as the cause of death.

The little thing was unable to take food artificially and really died of starvation.

FLANNERY JURY IS STILL OUT; STANDS 10 TO 2 ACQUITTAL

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 26.—Disagreement of the jury in the trial of J. J. Flannery, Hazelwood undertaker, charged with killing his wife on the night of February 13th, seemed inevitable today. When court convened at 9:30 the jury was still deadlocked. It has been out since 8:35 p. m. Friday. A report was current this morning that the jury stood 10 to 2 for acquittal.

LINCOLN'S FAME SECURE

Abraham Lincoln truly "now belongs to the ages," as Secretary of War Stanton, bending over his lifeless body, said. American history cannot be written to fit sectional prejudices. The statement that the Civil War was "deliberately and personally conceived" by the Great Emancipator will not be taken seriously by anyone except the United Confederate Veterans who passed a resolution containing this statement. The aged survivors of the Lost Cause permitted their prejudice to get the better for a moment of their reason.

This resolution lacks the power of reviving sectional bitterness, and that is the most convincing proof of the greatness of Abraham Lincoln. A new generation has arisen since the day of the professional fire-eaters of the South and the bloody-shirt flouters of the North, and it is concerned with the present and the future, not with raking up the embers of the past. Young men of the North and South have fought under one flag in two wars since the great civil conflict. The Union for which Lincoln gave his life has been so firmly cemented that it cannot be torn asunder.

It is conceded everywhere now, and especially by fair-minded men of the South, that Abraham Lincoln was a true friend of the revolting states. His assassination was the greatest blow that could have been dealt to that section, not only because he was utterly without malice, but because it delayed for many, many years the reconciliation that was inevitable. Some of the finest tributes to the Great Emancipator have come from Southern orators, and, if he were alive today, we can imagine the withering scorn with which Henry Watterson would have greeted the attempt to asperse the memory of Abraham Lincoln. But there is no need for heroics, and there can be only a feeling of regret that the handful of survivors of the Civil War should continue to invoke the ghosts of the past, instead of facing the realities of the present.

Killing the goose that laid the golden eggs has long been cited as an example of bad business policy. Congress is having its attention called to some war taxes that are having about that effect.

Several administrations ago the postoffice department got the ambition to be self-supporting. This in itself was not a bad idea so long as it could be applied without crippling the service. But during the Wilson administration, when hunting sources of revenue was not the least functions of the government, the attempt was made to make the postal goose lay more than one egg a day. The rates on second-class mail, particularly, seemed easy picking; they were boosted four times, resulting in an increase of nearly 900 per cent in some cases.

This extraordinary taxation yielded revenue directly, but it was found to have an unfortunate kick-back. The big end of postal receipts comes from first-class mail. Letter postage also was increased, but it was found that the discouragement of second-class matter soon had its effect upon the volume of letters. When the letters stopped moving the profits of the postoffice department fell off. The goose that laid the golden egg was being choked to death.

Representative M. Clyde Kelly, of Pennsylvania, has introduced a bill to repeal the last two of the increases in second-class postal rates. He says that even his measure will yield the government 175 per cent more than was produced by the pre-war rates. The effort, therefore, is not to relieve publishers of the burden of war taxes, but rather to adjust the postal rates to yield the greatest volume of revenue consistent with good postal service.

The services of the postoffice are so important to the social and economic welfare of the country that they should not be interfered with for the sake of making money for the government. There are other forms of taxation less detrimental.

Thirteen candidates want to be Governor of Ohio. This makes it certain that it will be an unlucky number for 12 of them.

Mexico's national debt is only $50.00 per capita, but there are many who contend that Mexico is not worth that much per capita.

WEST SIDE CHURCH NEWS

An unusually fine Children's Day program was carried out at the West Side M. E. Church yesterday. A violin solo by Prof. Schaeffer opened a fine musical program and the sermon, "Preparation for Life's Service" an educational theme, was an inspiration to the young folks. Thirteen children were baptised at the morning service.

In the evening the Board of Education of New York Fiftieth Anniversary program was carried out under the direction of Mrs. H. W. Jury and Mrs. C. J. Johnson. The decorations were made by William McCormick, J. Hickock, Harry J. Hoover, and Harry Shaw, very ably assisted by Henry Reiley, with the brush and canvas.

FOUR PLAYGROUNDS

in charge of Miss Eleanor Martin, who has had training in this sort of work at Carnegie Tech.

The director and supervisors will spend Thursday the 29th at the Driving Park assisting in the activities of Kiddies Day. On Friday they will be at the four playgrounds to welcome the children. Except when actually raining, the playgrounds will be under supervision from ten to twelve each morning and one to five each afternoon during the summer, except on Sundays. Parents sending their children to the grounds during those hours will know that they are under proper care and guidance. No responsibility is assumed by Clearfield Community Service for children on the grounds except at those hours, although every effort will be made to have the grounds and equipment in use by the young people of the neighborhoods during the evenings.

Committees are busy in each neighborhood making sand boxes and saws for the playgrounds. Swings slides and giant strides have been ordered, and will make a thoroughly sufficient equipment for the entertainment of the youngsters. In addition there is on hand for each playground what is known as a community athletic kit, consisting of a volleyball and net, basket ball and baskets, playground baseball and bats, a medicine ball and a set of quoits. All four of these sets will be used at the Driving Park on Thursday and will then be available during the day time on the playgrounds and during the evening for any groups wishing to take advantage of the opportunity to play volley ball, basket ball, playground ball or quoits.

These plans are the result of a community effort, not only in the field of financing, but in that of volunteering services in making equipment, putting grounds in shape and organizing for activities. Especially have the School Board made them possible by granting the use of school grounds and property, the Driving Park Association by granting use of facilities there, the Murray heirs in allowing the use of the property in the 4th Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Reed by the gift of a playground at Reedsville.

Stone Implements All Alike.
Perhaps the most characteristic of the Stone age are the stone axes and hammers discovered in many places in America. They are almost identical with the tools of the neolithic man found in Europe. The stone weapons include daggers and war clubs. There are many examples of stone dishes, hewn from small bowlers. With what appear to have been oiling plus of somewhat angular design the prehistoric woman of this coast seems to have been well supplied. Primitive man in British Columbia apparently did a little smoking now and then. Old stone mounds on the Thompson and Fraser rivers have yielded what appear to have been some stone pipes. The early explorers found the native races using true tobacco, nicotia attenuata, which grows wild in the Thompson river country and was smoked alone or mixed with grease and kinnikinnick.

Eighteen bodies of strikebreakers were lying in this temporary morgue in Herrin, Ill., when this photo was taken. Crowds visited the building throughout the day. The picture shows ruins of the strikebreakers' homes. They lived in cars that had been provided for them at the mines. Burning cars of coal that caught fire from the incendiary blaze, are shown at the left.

Herrin, Ill., June 26.—While 150 union miners, citizens and visitors from surrounding mining communities, looked on, 10 unidentified dead, victims of Williamson County's war slaughter, were laid to rest Sunday.

Four Protestant ministers of Herrin conducted the services. They prayed—not for forgiveness for those responsible for the rioting, nor for the souls of the victims. No direct mention of the dead or the warfare of Wednesday and Thursday was made.

The bodies were buried, and the crowd turned slowly and returned to Herrin. Herrin showed no genuine sorrow over the victims. Neither did Herrin show resentment. Herrin appears to feel she has done her duty. The men who tried to steal the strikers' jobs have been given decent burials, and she is ready to forget the whole affair.

Little interest was shown in the formal inquest called by Coroner Will McCowan.

HERRIN CONSIDERS MASSACRE INCIDENT A THING OF THE PAST

Herrin, Ill. June 26.—Bloody Williamson County today approved the report of the Coroner's jury which held officials of the Southern Illinois Coal Company responsible for the twenty-one deaths in the battle between union and non-union miners. With eighteen victims of the affray buried in the cemetery here Herrin considered the incident closed.

COAL STRIKE IS STILL THE BIG TOPIC IN GOVERNMENT CIRCLE

Washington, June 26.—Two movements looking towards the ending of the nation-wide coal strike, now in its fourteenth week, was under way here today. Secretary of Labor Davis is making another effort to bring about a conference between the coal miners and the operators by means of which it is hoped the walkout can be ended. President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers is here for a conference on the subject. In the Senate a new and drastic plan for Federal and State intervention to halt the strike was under consideration. This was said to involve a recommendation that some legal proceedings be taken against the striking miners.

Washington, June 26.—The Federal Government will take a new and unexpected move in the coal strike if the final effort of the Government now in progress to bring about a peace conference between the miners and operators fails, it was learned today at the Labor Department. Secretary of Labor Davis announced that he and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers would call on the President at noon to discuss the situation. President Lewis was asked to come here for the conference. It was announced just before Lewis met with Secretary Davis for a preliminary conference it was announced that the operators were standing pat on their demand that wage agreements should be negotiated in a state and sectional basis and not on a basis of dealing with the miners as a whole as demanded by the miners. A letter to this effect was received by the Department of Labor this morning.

Something New Being Added Every Day And A Wonderful Program Is In The Making.

MANY NOVELTIES

The American Legion's big Fourth of July celebration promises to make history for Clearfield as the different committees in charge continue to add new features to the already large and varied program under process of development for this great occasion. Nothing is being left undone to make this the biggest Fourth of July demonstration to be given in Central Pennsylvania and indications point to the largest crowd ever assembled in the town.

There is too much on the list of events for the day to give them all space in one article and we propose to give "extracts" from the program each day from now until the big day arrives. Here is one feature.

1. Tract and Field Meet at Driving Park.

1.—Tract and Field Meet at Driving Park.

As part of the program for the Fourth of July, the American Legion will hold a Tract and Field Meet at the Driving Park, in which all the athletes of the vicinity are eligible to take part.

The meet will start promptly at one o'clock, with events as follows.

- 1.—50 yard dash.
- 2.—100 yard dash.
- 3.—220 yard dash.

FOUR PLAYGROUNDS WILL OPEN HERE NEXT FRIDAY

Trained Instructors Are Engaged to Look After Our Youth And Teach Them How To Play.

ASSIST THE ELKS

Clearfield Community Service has so far completed its plans for the summer playgrounds as to be able to announce their opening for Friday, June 30th. The organization will operate with the Elks to the entertainment of the children at the Driving Park of Thursday, the 29th, and then begin activities on the playgrounds the next day.

Miss Margaret Leighton of Dalton, Pa., has been engaged as Director of Community Service for the coming year. Miss Leighton is a graduate of Skidmore College, and of Columbia University in courses in physical education and playground administration. She has had a number of years experience in the recreation field, having charge of physical education in the rural schools of a New York county and also in a mountain section of North Carolina. She has had charge of Y. W. C. A. activities in Louisville, Ky., and Bar Harbor, Me., and is experienced in amateur dramatics and pageantry. The committee in charge of the work believes Clearfield is fortunate in obtaining a director with the training and experience of Miss Leighton.

There will be a supervisor in charge of each playground. These supervisors are Clearfield girls, all of whom have had experience in this kind of work. Miss Edna Floyd will have charge of the playground on the West Side in the Driving Park. Miss Floyd is a great favorite among the children of that ward, where she teaches school, and of their parents. She assisted in the conduct of a playground at Hagerstown, Md., last summer. Miss Grace Stewart will have charge of the playground in the East End. Miss Stewart has just returned home from a successful year's teaching at Grand Rapids, Mich. The playground in the East End is in the grove at Murray's Woods at the end of 11th street. The central playground to be situated on the Witmer Park in back of the high school, will be in charge of Miss Sylvia Breth, who has spent the last year at Lock Haven Normal School, and the playground on the school grounds at Reedsville will be (Continued on Page 7.)

TELLS PECULIAR STORIES

Mineola, N. Y., June 26.—William Creasy broke down today and admitted that he had not been intimate with Edith Lavey, whose murder he has been charged with. "I became confused and told that story," Creasy said. "Edith was a good girl. I know she was, for I never would have married her otherwise."

Mine War Victim

C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the Southern Illinois Coal Company's mine near Herrin, Ill., was the first of those beaten and shot to death in the riot that followed importation of strikebreakers.

WIFE OF GOV. SMALL DIES AFTER HEARING OF HIS ACQUITTAL

Kankakee, Ill., June 26.—Mrs. Len Small, wife of the Illinois Governor, died today of apoplexy following her husband's acquittal. Mrs. Small was stricken with apoplexy when a blood vessel burst in her brain Saturday night. No hope was held out for her recovery after the stroke. Physicians said that the great strain of the trial coupled with the joy of her husband's acquittal caused her death. She was stricken just after a rousing homecoming celebration by thousands of the Governor's friends who were gathered on the lawn of the Governor's mansion.

HUGHES CALLS ON MEXICO TO RETURN AMERICAN TO U. S.

Washington, D. C., June 26.—Secretary of State Hughes has wired George T. Sumnerlin, American Charge d'Affairs at Mexico City, to take immediate steps to procure the release of A. B. Bielaski former chief of the Department of Justice Investigation Service, held for ransom by Mexican bandits.

Tarrytown, N. Y., June 26.—Because his cheery smiles welcomed William Rockefeller at his stand every morning for nearly forty years, Thomas De Lucca, bootblack, was among the few persons invited to attend the funeral of the dead magnate here this afternoon. "Charlie", as Mr. Rockefeller always called him, won a warm place in the financier's regard and for this reason had the privilege of joining the few who, at Rockefeller's special request, were summoned to the funeral services. Rev. Thomas W. Baldwin officiated at the services.

YOUTHFUL WIFE OF THEATRE MAGNATE SHOTS HUSBAND

Freeport, N. Y., June 25.—Oscar A. Hirsh, wealthy former theatrical producer of New York, is in a critical condition at the Nassau Hospital and his young wife, Hazel, is under arrest, charged with having shot him following a quarrel at the close of a lawn party given by Miss Rene Davies, actress, early this morning.

The shooting occurred in front of the home of Miss Davies, who is a sister of Marion Davies, moving picture star. Rene Davies is the former wife of George Lederer, theatre manager.

The cause of the quarrel which led to the shooting is not known. Hirsh, who was shot through the cheek, the bullet running downward and apparently lodging near his heart, said the shooting had followed threats of violence by Mrs. Hirsh, according to Bernard J. Douras, a New York City magistrate and father of the Misses Davies.

Magistrate Douras, who ran to Hirsh's side immediately after the shooting, told Assistant District Attorney Edwards the wounded man had gasped:

"She did it. She shot me. She said she would get me, and now she did it."

Mrs. Hirsh, running from the scene of the shooting, was heard to say, according to witnesses, "Oh, I shot my daddy." Later, at the police station Miss Rene Davies told the authorities that the accused woman declared that her husband had kept her a prisoner in their home here for four days "with little food and drink, and when he picked on me I didn't know what I did."

SLAYS SELF AFTER QUARREL WITH BRIDE OF SIX MONTHS

Scranton, Pa., June 26.—Following a quarrel with his bride of six months, Albert Johnson, of Peckville, went to his room and shot himself through the head. He was dead when other occupants of the building reached him.

Mrs. H. G. Wisner, of 8th street is able to be up again after being confined to her bed with diphtheria.

STRIKE OF RAIL WORKERS CERTAIN ON BALLOT BASIS

Chicago, Ill., June 26.—The strike of 1,200,000 union railroad employees on July 1st appeared certain today as the policy committee of the shop crafts employees met here to canvass the strike vote. The strike call will be sent out Thursday ordering the men to walk out Saturday, according to the best available information. The vote of the eleven railroad unions filed with the American Federation of Labor has been overwhelmingly in favor of the walkout in preference to acceptance of wage cuts and working under revisions ordered by the United States labor wage board.

Chicago, Ill., June 26.—Moves by the board to avert one of the causes for a strike by ordering railroads to cease letting out work under contract will not prevent a walk-out, Union leaders said today. They doubted the roads would obey the order, pointing to past opposition by the carriers to similar orders. The roads might be able to keep up some sort of service for a few days, the union leaders said, but they claim they will be unable to operate longer than a week because of repairs which will be needed on engines and other rolling stock by the end of that time. The workers have spoken and we will comply with their judgment, it was said by union officials. We have been forced into this position by the railroads and we are ready for the contest.

Freeport, N. Y., June 26.—Mrs. Hazel Hirsch, blonde beauty of the Hollywood of the East, appeared in court today to face charges of trying to kill her millionaire husband, Oscar Hirsch. She appeared before Judge Albin heavily veiled. She held a handkerchief over her disfigured right eye. The Assistant District Attorney accused Mrs. Hirsch of shooting her husband in the jaw yesterday morning after a lawn party given by Miss Rene Davies, a movie actress.

This morning as James Waterworth and three other young men were coming down the river from the country club grounds where they had been playing golf, in an effort to pass another car on the narrow detour to Hyde City their Franklin sedan slid down over the bank and tumbled into the river. The accident occurred at the foot of Coal Hill.

The boys all got bumped up a little and suffered an involuntary bath but luckily escaped serious injury. The car was pretty well banged up.

MURDER VERDICT IS RETURNED AGAINST SLAYERS OF WILSON

London, England, June 26.—A verdict of willful murder was returned today by the coroner's court against James O'Brien and James O'Connell, assassins of Field Marshall Sir Henry Wilson.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 26.—A vigorous movement to insure a "safe Fourth" in Pennsylvania is being pushed throughout the state by C. M. Wilhelm, chief of the Bureau of Fire Protection of the State police, who has written letters to all mayors, burgesses and editors in Pennsylvania asking their cooperation.

"Noise is not patriotism," said Wilhelm, "let's go back to the old days when the Fourth was celebrated in a sane way by the unfurling of the Stars and Stripes, the ringing of church bells and songs and speeches. The movement for a safe and sane Fourth of July is one of conservation, conservation of life and property and freedom from distracting noises produced by the firing of guns, pistols and firecrackers and other equally as dangerous catch-penny affairs that are purchased by young children."

John O. Sheatz, Ex-State Treasurer, Dies At The Shore

John O. Sheatz, former State Treasurer, who served three terms in the State House of Representatives and one term as State Senator, died suddenly of heart disease shortly before noon yesterday at the Hotel Raleigh, Atlantic City. He was sixty-seven years old.

With Mrs. Sheatz, he had gone to Atlantic City last Thursday expecting to pass a month at the resort. Mr. Sheatz seemed to be in excellent health and high spirits until yesterday morning. About 11 o'clock while preparing for a bath, he complained of a slight dizziness and his wife with the aid of a bellboy got him into bed. Dr. J. C. Marshall, 1517 Pacific Avenue was summoned immediately, but Mr. Sheatz died before the physician arrived at the hotel. Heart disease was given as the cause of death.

L. D. Rearick, keeper of Kennedy Park Game Reserve, located on the mountains seven miles north of town, has a regular zoo or menagerie at his mountain home. His outfit consists of two foxes, two skunks and a spotted fawn. He had two fawns but one little fellow, which was found in a flat car at a mine at Bloom's Run was unable to get along without its mother and died one day last week. The little thing was unable to take food artificially and really died of starvation.

FLANNERY JURY IS STILL OUT; STANDS 10 TO 2 ACQUITTAL

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 26.—Disagreement of the jury in the trial of J. J. Flannery, Hazelwood undertaker, charged with killing his wife on the night of February 13th, seemed inevitable today. When court convened at 9:30 the jury was still deadlocked. It has been out since 8:35 p. m. Friday. A report was current this morning that the jury stood 10 to 2 for acquittal.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR BABY WELL

A Weekly Talk To Mothers Issued
Through The Babies' Prophylactic
Clinic, Henry Phipps Institute, 7th and Lombard Streets, Philadelphia.

SUMMER CARE OF BABY—II

In taking care of your baby in hot weather, be particularly careful that he is getting the right kind of nourishment. For the breast-fed baby, absolute regularity in feeding is essential. Of course this is always the case, but in summer, all rules for baby's health must be followed with special attention.

Even in the breast-fed baby, over-feeding must be avoided. It leads to disturbed sleep at night, vomiting and diarrheal stools. During the hot days, babies require less food. Therefore shorten the time at the breast and give boiled water freely between nursings.

In the artificially fed baby, it is important not only that the milk be pure, but that it is so modified as to suit the digestive capacity of the baby. By modified milk is meant cow's milk changed by the addition of either boiled water, cereal water, and sugar.

How to modify your baby's milk is exactly the right proportions need cause you no concern. Either your private physician or a doctor in one of the numerous baby clinics held throughout the city and in the rural districts will be glad to advise you.

Do not attempt to experiment in this direction with your baby by taking the advice of unscientifically trained people. No matter how competent a neighbor or friend may seem and how willing to teach you, it is far better to get information from professional advisors who have made the subject a life study.

Children who are old enough to be getting other foods besides milk, must not be allowed to eat things that may upset their stomachs.

Don't give them pennies to spend on cheap candies and ice creams, that may do them no harm at the time but may nevertheless at any moment bring on a severe intestinal disturbance, and has even been known to cause death.

For these children, absolute regularity in feeding is important. Their desire for sweets is normal and may be gratified by giving them a small piece of pure hard candy, or bread and butter with molasses or jelly right after meals. Do not give sweets in place of a regular meal or between meals.

Avoid giving them overripe and unripe fruits. They are dangerous. Bananas, watermelons, cucumbers and radishes have no place in the diet list of a child under three years of age.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

We often hear it said that National Prohibition is a farce and is not accomplishing what was expected of it. We don't propose to allow anybody to make such statements in our presence hereafter. We had occasion to travel across a portion of the state recently and decided, for purely "scientific" reasons to take casual notice of how prohibition enforcement was functioning in the section traveled, over which included a portion of the once very wet "hard coal country".
As a result of what we found, we doff our chapeau to the Rev. John T. Davis and his corps of competent officials.
They really are accomplishing the impossible, and at present speed will have even Pennsylvania dry as a covered bridge within the next twelve months. We made a trip thru part of the territory visited last week just previous to the advent of National prohibition. The change or difference now is almost unbelievable.

More than half the buildings or rooms which housed licensed liquor selling places are now converted into other business places while ninety out of one hundred which provide accommodation for the traveling public not only do not maintain a bar of any kind but those in charge get indignant if you ask about liquid refreshments
"with a kick".

We visited a second, several third class cities and a number of boroughs and the result was practically the same in each and everyone. Prohibition is really prohibiting. Inquiry in many places elicited the information that there were bootleggers about who would furnish a thirsty traveler with "something" if one could be located, and the aforesaid traveler would take the chance, otherwise there was nothing doing.

As we said before, prohibition is really prohibiting to the extent of at least ninety per cent. At the end of another year, with the present progress the problem will be solved. Director, Haynes and Davis have succeeded in making bootlegging a purely local enterprise or operation and by that we mean the bootlegger is peddling the poison manufactured in his own community and to the people he knows. The local authorities in every community can assist the National movement by ending the local law-breaking and thereby make it painless.

No man will know or have any idea how much improved highway there is in Pennsylvania until he travels across state by automobile. It is simply marvelous to the poor provincial Pennsylvania mountaineer what he finds in the way of fine roads thru the eastern and northern sections of the state, as Pennsylvania has lifted herself out of the mud faster and more substantially the past half dozen years than has any other single one of our forty-eight states. There may be some things the Sprout administration should be criticized for but the carrying out of its comprehensive road building program and the results attained will ever remain a star in its crown.

LINCOLN'S FAME SECURE

Abraham Lincoln truly "now belongs to the ages," as Secretary of War Stanton, bending over his lifeless body, said. American history cannot be written to fit sectional prejudices. The statement that the Civil War was "deliberately and personally conceived" by the Great Emancipator will not be taken seriously by anyone except the United Confederate Veterans who passed a resolution containing this statement. The aged survivors of the Lost Cause permitted their prejudice to get the better for a moment of their reason.

This resolution lacks the power of reviving sectional bitterness, and that is the most convincing proof of the greatness of Abraham Lincoln. A new generation has arisen since the day of the professional fire-eaters of the South and the bloody-shirt flouters of the North, and it is concerned with the present and the future, not with raking up the embers of the past. Young men of the North and South have fought under one flag in two wars since the great civil conflict. The Union for which Lincoln gave his life has been so firmly cemented that it cannot be torn asunder.

It is conceded everywhere now, and especially by fair-minded men of the South, that Abraham Lincoln was a true friend of the revolting states. His assassination was the greatest blow that could have been dealt to that section, not only because he was utterly without malice, but because it delayed for many, many years the reconciliation that was inevitable. Some of the finest tributes to the Great Emancipator have come from Southern orators, and, if he were alive today, we can imagine the withering scorn with which Henry Watterson would have greeted the attempt to asperse the memory of Abraham Lincoln. But there is no need for heroics, and there can be only a feeling of regret that the handful of survivors of the Civil War should continue to invoke the ghosts of the past, instead of facing the realities of the present.

Killing the goose that laid the golden eggs has long been cited as an example of bad business policy. Congress is having its attention called to some war taxes that are having about that effect.

Several administrations ago the postoffice department got the ambition to be self-supporting. This in itself was not a bad idea so long as it could be applied without crippling the service. But during the Wilson administration, when hunting sources of revenue was not the least functions of the government, the attempt was made to make the postal goose lay more than one egg a day. The rates on second-class mail, particularly, seemed easy picking; they were boosted four times, resulting in an increase of nearly 900 per cent in some cases.

This extraordinary taxation yielded revenue directly, but it was found to have an unfortunate kick-back. The big end of postal receipts comes from first-class mail. Letter postage also was increased, but it was found that the discouragement of second-class matter soon had its effect upon the volume of letters. When the letters stopped moving the profits of the postoffice department fell off. The goose that laid the golden egg was being choked to death.

Representative M. Clyde Kelly, of Pennsylvania, has introduced a bill to repeal the last two of the increases in second-class postal rates. He says that even his measure will yield the government 175 per cent more than was produced by the pre-war rates. The effort, therefore, is not to relieve publishers of the burden of war taxes, but rather to adjust the postal rates to yield the greatest volume of revenue consistent with good postal service.

The services of the postoffice are so important to the social and economic welfare of the country that they should not be interfered with for the sake of making money for the government. There are other forms of taxation less detrimental.

Thirteen candidates want to be Governor of Ohio. This makes it certain that it will be an unlucky number for 12 of them.

Mexico's national debt is only $50.00 per capita, but there are many who contend that Mexico is not worth that much per capita.

WEST SIDE CHURCH NEWS

An unusually fine Children's Day program was carried out at the West Side M. E. Church yesterday. A violin solo by Prof. Schaeffer opened a fine musical program and the sermon, "Preparation for Life's Service" an educational theme, was an inspiration to the young folks. Thirteen children were baptised at the morning service.

In the evening the Board of Education of New York Fiftieth Anniversary program was carried out under the direction of Mrs. H. W. Jury and Mrs. C. J. Johnson. The decorations were made by William McCormick, J. Hickock, Harry J. Hoover, and Harry Shaw, very ably assisted by Henry Reiley, with the brush and canvas.

in charge of Miss Eleanor Martin, who has had training in this sort of work at Carnegie Tech.

The director and supervisors will spend Thursday the 29th at the Driving Park assisting in the activities of Kiddies Day. On Friday they will be at the four playgrounds to welcome the children. Except when actually raining, the playgrounds will be under supervision from ten to twelve each morning and one to five each afternoon during the summer, except on Sundays. Parents sending their children to the grounds during those hours will know that they are under proper care and guidance. No responsibility is assumed by Clearfield Community Service for children on the grounds except at those hours, although every effort will be made to have the grounds and equipment in use by the young people of the neighborhoods during the evenings.

Committees are busy in each neighborhood making sand boxes and saws for the playgrounds. Swings slides and giant strides have been ordered, and will make a thoroughly sufficient equipment for the entertainment of the youngsters. In addition there is on hand for each playground what is known as a community athletic kit, consisting of a volleyball and net, basket ball and baskets, playground baseball and bats, a medicine ball and a set of quoits. All four of these sets will be used at the Driving Park on Thursday and will then be available during the day time on the playgrounds and during the evening for any groups wishing to take advantage of the opportunity to play volley ball, basket ball, playground ball or quoits.

These plans are the result of a community effort, not only in the field of financing, but in that of volunteering services in making equipment, putting grounds in shape and organizing for activities. Especially have the School Board made them possible by granting the use of school grounds and property, the Driving Park Association by granting use of facilities there, the Murray heirs in allowing the use of the property in the 4th Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Reed by the gift of a playground at Reedsville.

Stone Implements All Alike.
Perhaps the most characteristic of the Stone age are the stone axes and hammers discovered in many places in America. They are almost identical with the tools of the neolithic man found in Europe. The stone weapons include daggers and war clubs. There are many examples of stone dishes, hewn from small bowlers. With what appear to have been oiling plus of somewhat angular design the prehistoric woman of this coast seems to have been well supplied. Primitive man in British Columbia apparently did a little smoking now and then. Old stone mounds on the Thompson and Fraser rivers have yielded what appear to have been some stone pipes. The early explorers found the native races using true tobacco, nicotia attenuata, which grows wild in the Thompson river country and was smoked alone or mixed with grease and kinnikinnick.
